

Rastafarianism Prayers

I pray not by always asking for things...but by listening to what Jah is askings....

To shut up the ego, be humble and obey Jah's commands is a prayer beyond words.

I pray in spirit...words can assist...but words can't be dead(no spirit)

To surrender to Jah and The Almighty's will, to let go of the ego's power trip and put all trust in Jah so not to fall...

I pray by asking strength to overcome all temptations, and the power to trample the devil

Ina irie meditation I pray for I and I and I, all and one impartial.

I pray to Haillie Selassie The power of The Trinity to Give grace and send Jah saving hand Yeshua The Christ to rise and shine in land

I pray for the day Jah Kingdom flourishes over the entire green earth and wickedness is no more
I pray for Jah to banish this darkness from my own heart with the illumination of his enlightening one, the Christ the divine, the holla of of Rastafari to fulfill the body and uplift it along with its counterpart the earth into Zion to make earth and heaven one as Zion.

Establish the foundation....The foundation is of the spirit not of the material and flesh....

I pray pray INI establish the roots of INI faith on solid ground so that when things shake rattle and roll nothing can make INI fall get knocked over or crumble.....Zion Iron Strong Lion Heart!

Courage to pray, meditate.

One part of prayer is in spirits...Other part is in physical action...Cultivate it up from within...Carry it out....
This is prayer and worship....Bless Up
